

Service Alliance

Service Corps

Venturer Company / Rover Crew

Code of Conduct

1. Follow the Scouts Canada Promise, the Law, Motto, and By-laws, Policies, and Procedures (BP&P).
2. Follow the Service Corps Constitution.
3. Refrain from verbal or physical abuse.
4. Refrain from mean spirited, unkind or offensive remarks.
5. Refrain from use of cellular phones for personal purposes during the meetings.
6. Refrain from flirting or romantic behaviors displayed during Scouting/Guiding meetings or events.
7. Work cooperatively as a team member with the Executive Council as well as the rest of the members of the Company/Crew.
8. Refrain from communicating using unaccountable methods regarding about Scouting activity.
9. Follow RIC-22, for all events where members are communicating using a radio.
10. Follow Robert's Rules of Order For all meetings in all cases which it does not conflict with the Company/Crew Constitution or Code of Conduct.
11. Provide notice to the executive council in a formal and accountable way if they are unable to attend a meeting before the meeting takes place.
12. Raise any infractions to the Constitution or Code of Conduct to the Executive Council, which will decide the appropriate course of action to follow.